Mrs. Ernest Cruikshank, B.S., M.A.

President, 1932—1946

In appreciation of all that she has meant to Saint Mary's and to Saint Mary's girls throughout the years of her presidency, the student body of this year and every year extends thanks and affection to Mrs. Cruikshank.

The Rev. Mr. I. Harding Hughes, A.B., B.D.

Sunday night parties in the Chaplain's home are a typical indication of Mr. Hughes' cordiality and interest in being both friend and adviser to Saint Mary's girls.

Elliot Frost Stoughton, A.B., M.C.S.

Business Manager

Saint Mary's new recreation room is characteristic of Mr. Stoughton in his understanding, his enthusiastic and progressive plans for the school.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT OFFICERS

KATHRYN FULTON

Kathryn meets the twenty-four-hour-a-day demands of her office as President of Student Government with unfailing cheerfulness, understanding, and thoroughness.

PONCIE DAWSON

Additional proof that the best things come in small packages is the amazing energy and efficiency with which vivacious Poncie solves the problems of dorm life, as Chairman of the Hall Council.

CAROLYN DESCHAMPS

In spite of a deceptively mischievous gleam in her eye, Carolyn's activities as vice president of the Student Government do much to bring the organization and the girls together.

JANE LEE PARKER

With soft words and winning smile, Jane Lee carries out well her duties as leader of the day students.

EMMA KATIE GUION

Hall Council Secretary, Emma Katie, manages the tedious yet essential records of this body, and makes the girls like it.

KATE JOHNSON

Careful and conscientious, Kate is the model student government secretary.

THE HONOR COUNCIL

Forcefully yet with complete simplicity, this supreme court functions as the backbone of our student government. The personal integrity of the members of this body embodies to every girl the spirit behind the law. Their wise and understanding enforcement of regulations makes a system of self responsibility and honor possible at Saint Mary's.

THE HALL COUNCIL

The Hall Council, the guiding hands in our day-to-day activities, is the organization upon which the burden of our recent innovations in student government has fallen. In attempting, little by little, to build a system of true self government, we have this year placed the regulation of our dorm life almost wholly in the hands of these girls. They have taken up the responsibility, and with firm but friendly tactics steered the new system successfully through its maiden voyage.

THE LEGISLATIVE BODY

The Legislative Body, unique in that it is the sole school organization in which every student has a voice, is the medium through which each girl can contribute toward meeting the needs and furthering the growth of her government. This Congress, which receives, considers, and judges petitions, makes possible the direct influence of each girl on the system which regulates her behavior. To its members fall the difficult tasks of foreseeing the possible value and suitability of each request. Their discretion and fair judgment enable us to maintain an effective yet progressive student government at Saint Mary's.

*Dear Betsy,
I & she have enjoyed knowing you this year!
I'm sure you'll be back next year. We are gonna have a grand time! Love you! this summer. Love, Jan Roberts*

Seniors

Plans for carrying out long cherished ideals of self government, formulated in the spring of the Junior year, were adopted this fall. In hope of creating an atmosphere of better understanding among the girls, the seniors this year have taken an active part in the regulation of student life. Individually and as a class, they have devoted this year to the success of this experiment in student government. Now, no longer in the experimental stage, these innovations have become a basis for the realization of present and future ideals at Saint Mary's.

ORGANIZATIONS

Mary Pinckney, editor, Bulletin; Jane Campbell, editor, STAGE COACH; C. A. P. Moore, adviser; Sally Ann Elliott, editor, Belles.

Always interested in the Belles, the Bulletin, and the STAGE COACH, Mr. Moore, in addition to his untiring advice, gives the final OK on all school publications.

A constant source of astonishment to those (if there be any) who do not know Sally Ann, is the amount of efficiency behind that deceiving gaiety. Energy and organization are the secrets of her ability to make the task of editing a bi-monthly newspaper run as smoothly as clock work.

The Bulletin always appears as a surprise package since its production is almost wholly in the hands of one person, its capable editor, Mary Pinckney. Her keen sense of value in selecting student contributions and her taste in compiling and editing have made the Bulletin this year a record of the best in creative writing ability at Saint Mary's.

With enthusiasm and tact, Jane has surmounted the problems of turning out an annual. Undaunted by rain on photographing days, or endless reams of copy on almost every day, her efficiency and constant hard work have created the 1946 STAGE COACH.

The surroundings, Spot's gay walls—the time, every Monday night 7:00—the staff, in action. Assignments and advice are dealt out. Saint Sallies, editorials, Calendar of Events, and the latest concert to be covered are on their way to meet the Friday 9:00 deadline.

CATIONS

Checking copy, snapshots by the dozen, scheduling annual pictures, using Webster's faithfully, and compiling columns, conscientiously performed by the staff editors and adviser, are the details which make the publications click.

"Will the girls who deliver the Belles please meet in the Staff Room Friday afternoon?" This is Emma Katie's bi-monthly announcement, which means that students and faculty receive their Belles on time.

Ads from the STAGE COACH's faithful patrons are collected by the business staff. Fabian Wadsworth and Mr. Moore engineer the proceedings.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

SIGMA LAMBDA

The Sigma Lambda's of 1945-46 have conducted their literary investigations over a broad field ranging from southern and modern poetry and current theater to Wilde, Shaw, Tolstoy, and Dostoievsky. The genuine interest of each member has made their wanderings through varied types of writing both entertaining and instructive.

E.A.P.

The E.A.P.'s have specialized in Russian literature this year, endeavoring through these writings to better understand the nation, its people and customs. They are also to be congratulated on winning last year's cup for the most outstanding literary contributions.

Watkins, Thomas, Chappell, Hassler, Gray.

YWCA COUNCIL

The YWCA was born of a need for a service group of non-Episcopalian girls. Directed by Mildred Chappell and the council, members of the "Y" have both tangibly and intangibly promoted school spirit.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY COUNCIL

The Christmas party, the Bazaar, and the Thanksgiving Baskets symbolize the Woman's Auxiliary. Episcopal girls under the guidance of Mrs. Hughes and Katherine Royall help in church activities and sponsor drives for the Thompson Orphanage.

GLEE CLUB

Activity keynotes the Club this year. Under the able direction of Miss Cate, these girls have presented programs for the Woman's Club in Raleigh, at Fort Bragg, over WPTF and at State College. Saint Mary's students will remember their delightful Christmas concert and their presentation of the Stabat Mater in the chapel.

GRANDDAUGHTERS' CLUB

Carrying on for their mothers and grandmothers before them, Saint Mary's girls have joined together, with the aid of Miss Hopkins, to solicit funds for the Centennial Drive and to sponsor the sale of Address Books at Christmas.

DOCTORS' DAUGHTERS

This year the twenty doctors' daughters at Saint Mary's under the direction of Mrs. Naylor, have raised money for Thanksgiving baskets and held a banquet for their fathers in the spring.

POLITICAL SCIENCE CLUB

Students of history, economics, sociology, and government meet once a month with Mr. Guess to discuss current affairs. Guest speakers incite interest in today's problems and awaken the members to their future responsibilities as world citizens.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Madame Smith and the French students organized this year's Le Cercle Francais in order to become familiar with French culture and to learn to speak the language more fluently.

CHOIR

"We build our school on Thee,
Oh Lord"

ALTAR GUILD

Small in number, quiet and faithful in service, members of the Altar Guild learn the mysteries of altar hangings and church decorations. Guided by Miss Bason, these girls prepare the chapel for services.

SEXTETTE

These six have delighted many an audience with their rhythmic renditions which Miss Cate has carefully supervised.

Martin, Whitley, Strickland, Royall, Trotter, Eyster.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Moliere's Imaginary Invalid and Shakespeare's Taming of the Shrew remind faculty and students of delightful entertainment. These productions have provided members of the Dramatic club with valuable experience in acting, make up, properties, and lighting. Both performances were capably and conscientiously directed by Miss Davis and Sarah Buchanan.

ORCHESIS

Creative dancing rates as a favorite pastime with the members of Orchesis. Chosen for interest and ability in dance technique, these girls have a chance to develop their talent in their weekly meetings. A trip to Durham in April to witness the famous dancing of Charles Weidman and to receive instruction from him highlighted this season's program.

This year's members are Mrs. Guess, Miss Graham, Katherine Royall and Nina Mae DeBerry, Sigma president and vice president; Sue Everett and Betty Smith, Mu president and vice president; and Virginia Smith, Letter Club president.

Honorary athletic society at Saint Mary's is the Letter Club. A girl may earn membership in this club by making All-Star in two major sports. These leaders in the athletic program direct Posture Week and plan the athletic banquet at the end of the year.

FEATURES

Marshals

Whether in the colorful flash of daytime regalia or the snowy swish of concert formals, the six marshals lead us with dignity, poise, and graciousness.

My dear Mary,
 I am so happy to see you and all the others this year. I still say we have the best hall in school.
 You are really a darling girl and I'll never see a better one. I'll always remember our big time. Have a big time with the band and I will come out with you in the car. I will be there to see you.
 I'll come to the trip and see you. Much love, Mary, Helen

Betsy darling;
 Just can't tell you how wonderful it been knowing you this far. Please to come to see me and think about me sometimes.
 My very best wishes to you. The sweetness and charm of these girls often blinds us to the amount which they pour into their job. They deserve a vote of thanks for the running success of all the school dances.

Love and Luck,
 Forever

Seated: Cooper, Linehan, Tomlin, Leak. Standing: Barnes, Goodwyn, Clinard, Slater, Chief: Clarkson, Hines, Green, Dempsey, Adkerson, Hoffmann.

The faculty selected the six following girls as best personifying the true Saint Mary's girl . . . for her loyalty, integrity, and high devotion to the school and her interests.

Kathrine Waddell Royall

I have been thinking of you very much lately.
 How are you getting on?
 I hope you are well.
 I am feeling better now.
 The weather is so nice.
 I wish you were here.
 Love,
 John

A KILOWATT HOUR?

That's Easy!

A kilowatt hour is really not difficult to understand. Electricity is measured in units of pressure (volts) and in units of current flow (amperes). Multiply these two together and you have a unit of power, the watt. The watt is a relatively small unit and it is customary to use 1000 watts, or a kilowatt as a practical base of measurement of electricity. A KILOWATT HOUR represents the use of one kilowatt (1000 watts) for one hour. It represents energy equivalent to one and one third horsepower. It is the unit of measurement used in your electric bill, and the residential customers of the Carolina Power and Light Company pay an average of two and seven-tenths cents for each kilowatt hour of electricity used.

Smartly dressed—she has the right clothes for all occasions. And the right glasses — streamlined spectacles for daytime, an oxford for more formal moments, and sunglasses ground to her prescription.

She's smart. She knows that good vision gives her poise, adds to her charm. She knows that glasses are the most important accessory a woman wears and should be not only flattering to her face but also harmonious with her costume.

Dearest Betsy -
 Well as you know I'm not exactly a contemplative type so I'll just have to make a list of the things I'm really going to miss (Mopsy, Mary, you, next to you - etc - I'd just walk in the morning - I'd been just good - seriously though Betsy, you were missing you - with a good heart - I'm sure that I'll be missing you - I'm sure this summer
 I'll be missing you - really!

Dearest Betsy,
 Every time I hear "Good, good, good!" I think of you. Could it be... oh no! not that. Please don't forget the fun we had at Long Island's table.
 Grits 'n ham gravy. Yum! Yum!

Be good. Please write me sometime this summer. See you next fall.
 Love you,
 Janie

P.S. Hey "Ba-ba-re-pop" - the "Good" way!
